THE DAILY SHORT STORY

On The Way to the Elm. By LILY WONDEL. right, 1930, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

ETTIE stood in the dormer window of her neat little attic bedroom and re-read the attic bedroom and reread the star—a proposal and the very cone she had had. "And probably the last," she told herself without bitterness. When you live ma little fram miles and miles from nowhere and are not very attactive and are extremely bashful and hard to get acquainted with, what chances have you in the matimonial line?

rimonial line?

It was a short letter, to the point, sirned James C. Hines. He was their neighbor, a splendid man, ever-body liked him and Nettie knew him well, saw and chatted with him every? She admired him, enjoyed talking to him, respected his advice and felt a little lattered that he wanted her. Of turns she had seen it coming, this proposal There had been all kinds of little forerunners. Little packages of her favorite seeds, and bastets of barries or specially nice of barries or specially nice ait. Then he had asked her once twice how she would like to Itve on the Hines farm. Even the fam-liv had noticed and teased, at least brother Will had remarked, "guess come day we'll have Nettle as a explore" and father and mothand father and mother smiled approvingly.

It was all very nice except that he was a widower with six children And two were cider than the life but that made it all the more difficult. Ned, the oldest, was an old playmate. Now he was courting Sally Watts in the village and Jim, the next in are had been and Jim, be next in age, had been away from the farm a good dear and in the last years Nettle feit strange toward him. Jim seemed to avoid her and that hurt so much that sometimes it brought hot tears to her eyes. Such an odd feeling came over her when she saw him samter along with Ned to the santer along with Ned to the Watts house. Sally had a younger sister, very pretty and jolly and why should not Jim go there? Nettle folded her letter and slaced it in her top bureau drawer, was to meet him under the old elm around the twist in the lane if— her answer was favorable. Meet

The day before he had has solved my problems and given me the right advice. Isn't it the most natural thing in the world that I go to her with this very imortant question?"

Mrs. Emmet sat on the leaf-covmrs. Emmet sat on the lear-cov-pored back porch knitting. She sked up with a surprised smile ten Nettle, very grave-faced, tepped out and without a word laced the letter in her mother's dear girl." when she had "I want to know, mother, shall accept him?" in a low, tense rourself. All I can say is that I when he spoke as he did in the rail would be very pleased if you would road station and that I had to turn dear. You know him so well and from him to conceal my tears, i he loves you very dearly. Don't couldn't go on with my bit of news, and Bob never noticed when I stopped speaking!

"I don't know," answered Nettie ped speaking!

The reason for his sharp critin a muffled, feeble voice.

Her mother laughed. "I believe you are head over heels in love and 't know it!"

"But all the children, mother," Flurted out Nettle despairingly. What children?"

"What children?"
Oh, you know very well. Esthar. Ne? and the rest!"
"Ch, don't let them bother you.
Most of them are grown. How foolish you are, Nettle?" I cannot take such a step light-I see all the responsibility that see all the responsibility that comes with such a marriage."

Wirs. Enimet drew her daughter cown on her lap. "Nettie, look into your heart and let that alone that a atto your heart and let that alone secide you. Many a foolish little girl has let her right man slip away because she weighed and con-sidered and judged and wanted to make so cock-sure of everything that she lost all. If you are so excited that you cannot think clear-

Nettie gave her mother a quiver-g kiss and hastened down the ig kiss and ath. For the first time in her life the felt disappointed in her mothas though in this great turning t of her life she had falled her. Oh, she felt like hiding somewhere nd sobbing her heart out and no to the old elm at all. was on the lane now, just before the twist and a tiny, footpath lay convenience along and onlined into comething—somebody—Jim!

"Nettie!" She was in his arms. her cheek on his rough coat. "I watted and waited—you did not come. You did not mean it for no. ome. You do to them to the do do you? I love you so that it urts—for years, Nettle. I never ould get up courage. Yesterday I poke to your mother." He stopped o find her lips and then looked assioningly down in her eyes. "Oh, I was on my way to the m, Jim; truly I was. You can it mother when we go back to

A Shrewd Woman.

A.—Why do you watch the sall bulletins so closely? Mrs. B.-My husband is a fan an ake it a rule never to discuss schold or millinery expenses team wins.—Boston Tran-"Give Till It Hurts."

rownups may learn something n little Johnnie. On the mora-of his birthday this notice was no pasted on the door of his my birthday; giv

Pannier Idea Distinguishes Quaint Frock

New York's Fashlon Authority.
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The dress illustrated is a quaint affair of white voile that might have or write voise that might have been copied from a Godey's La-dies' book.

A flounce of large scallops edged with fine Valenciennes lace finishes off the skirt, which also features a unique variation of the nanuler, effect. P. D. Yost, of East Main street, returned home on Saturday evening from Washington, D. C., where he

CONFESSIONS

OF A BRIDE (Copyright, 1929.)

around the twist in the lane if—bor answer was favorable. Meet him at 5 o'clock and now it was ten hant over his good points again but always bobbed up, the six childref! Imagine having lim at the table every day and being called mother! It was ridiculous—imposlible!

But she liked him immensely, he would be a good husband, a very avoid the task by going to one of An exquisite contralto laugh But she liked him immensely, he hand. Of course, we could always would be a good husband, a very ind one, and in spite of being the clubs or hotels for dinner the twice her age she had to admit he was young and boyish-looking and till of fun. Only yesterday he had helped her plant dahlia bulbs and how they had joked and laughed to how they had joked and laughed to reather. The day before he had reading. reading. Katherine Miller laughs exquis

Long store in Market street, has accepted a position in the Leopold men's furnishing store in Fairmoni. tred her swing. He was always doing those little nice things that count so much in everyday life.

I know," she decided finally, and the worked at my kitchen sink, i though the sink of t icli stalks I had been cutting. I understood for the first time a certain little criticism my husband had recently made of my voice. Bob and I were waiting in a noisy station for a train, and I was telling him something important in nervous high tones, when my husband interrupted me abrupily: "You're talking too loud! I like a contralto voice, you know!"

Bob didn't intend to be brutal—he never is that—and I didn't in inished reading it, "we all have tend to be touchy, athough I some spected this for some time!" She times am, I suppose. I realize that ughed happily and took one of my voice is often strained and perdaughter's cold hands . "How haps unpleasant when I am com

"I daughter's cold hands "How kited and nervous you are, dear hild! What is it, Nettle?" "I want to know, nother, shall accept him?" in a low, tense oice.
"Nettle, you must know that ownered hild in the rail ourself. All I can say is that ourself. To know him so well and as loves you very dearly. Don't could be very pleased if you would ear. You know him so well and a loves on very dearly. Don't coulor be him, pet?"
"I don't know," answered Nettie a muffled, foeble voice.

"The reason for his sharp criti"The reason for his sharp criti-

The reason for his sharp criticism came to me in a flash as I listened to Katherine's low laugh.
It was the contralto note in her slow speech which my husband had contrasted with my rapid flow of words and my high-pitched voice. Remembering her contraito, Bob was irritated and exasperated by the inferior quality of my sonrano and for the first time in our wed-ded life! I sat down on a garden bench and listened to the duet of small talk in the kitchen. Of course, I couldn's hear what they were saying—I wasn't listening in that sense. It was taking Bob and Katherne an unnecessarily long time to finish those dishes. My little revenge for their ride wasn't proving sweet.

I analyzed Katherine's laugh:
It was too geen it was always. It was too even, it was always exactly the same. It sounded as if that she lost all. If you are so exsited that you cannot think cleariy and really want mother's advice, its me tell you—go to the old elm and decide there. Hurry, too, because it's fifteen minutes past of it on my haband. The heartst of it on my husband! The hateful the doorway.

CRHICGINS

And Bob couldn't see—or hear—as I did—that there was nothing spontaneous—nothing sincere in her laugh.

He liked a contraito voice:

"Maybe he can't help liking whose laugh harmonize with his own," said myself to my self as I tried to shape my lips into he twist and a tiny, just before sell as I tried to snape my lips into a her left. It did not lead to the kitchen. "Maybe it's a trick of name in the stopped into it, hurried to the hermonizing laugh of a man and a woman indicate the stopped into the stopped in harmonizing dispositions—or a dis-position to harmonize!"

> Pleasant News.
> Young Man—What did your pa > say when he heard I had kissed ur sister? Little Girl-He said that was en

The Mormon temple, in process of erection since 1914, at Calgary, Alberta, will cost $1,500,000 when

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

(Copyright, 1920, N. E. A.)

Grass stains often play havoc little water added is prone to burn with white skirts and dresses. NEW PICKLES To remove a grass stain spread butter over the stain and lay in

If the dress stained is a delicate If the dress stathed is a concare color that will fade if exposed to the sun's direct rays, cover all the cloth except the stain with a piece of dark heavy cloth that will exclude the light.

Watch the stain and remove the garment from the sun as soon as the stain disappears.

Menu for Tomorrow Braakfast—Melons, cereal with top milk, toast, coffee. Luncheon.—Sucnotash, brown bread, new pickles, tea. Dinner—Baked fish, shoestring potatoes, new beets, cabbage sal-ad, hucklearry mediag.

ad, huckleberry pudding, coffee. My Own Recipes .

An old New England dish is that of green corn and beans. String beans may be used in place of limas but should be shelled. If and is smooth. Add vegetables and cooked on the cob and then cut off, there is little danger of the dish burning during the cooking. Corn cut from the cob will some neighbor insist on doing and cooked in its own milk with a his cropping at 5 as m. MARY.

drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a little same with a little water. Add sugar and vinegar. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Burt and Mrs. J. R. Burt and Mrs. E. F. Patterson attended the fair at Waynesburg, Pa., on Friday.

Miss Ella Bowers has returned from a visit at Mountain Lake Park, Md.

Ray Tabler, of Pittsburg, spent the week end with his fater, Supt.

MANNINGTON

Out of Navy. Okey Yost, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Attend Fair. Harry J. Matthews and son, Marshall, Peter Price, Everett W. Beat-ty and Robert Furbee were among those who attended the fair at Truck Party to County Seat.

derwood en route and returned home after a very enjoyable eve-ning. Twenty boys and girls were Called by Mother's illness.

The four Morsis brothers, employed by the Marion Window

Glass company, were called to their home at Millville, N. J., by the seri-ous illness of their mother.

Position at Fairmont.
Harry Stephens, who for several years was a clerk in the C. Howard Waynesburg the past week.

NEW PICKLES 1 quart small cucumbers quart little onions quart large cucui 1 quart green tomatoes large cauliflower 4 peppers

DRESSING 1 cup flour 5 tablespoons mustard 1 tablespoon tumeric

1 cup sugar
6 cups vinegar
Wash vegetables. Slice large cucumber and tomatoes. Divide cauliflower into small pieces. Cut was a visitor with friends here Saturday evening.
brine of 4 quarts of water and 2 cups of sait. Pour over the vegetables and let stand 24 hours. Heat enough to scald and then drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, and the stand and the drain and the stand and the drain and the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the drain. Mix flour, mustart, turmeric to a smooth paste with a libration of the stand and the sta its is fast being broken up by the its is fast being broken up of the penalization of all offenders. Moreover toward rapid traveling a tendency toward rapid traveling and they, too, are being closely watched, and violators riging these machines will be given the same dose as the auto speeders.

Dorrance Eastman was a visition in Friday evening. Dorrance Eastman was a visit of the penalization of all offenders. Dorrance Eastman was a visition in Farimont on Friday evening. Dr. and Mrs. M. F. Hamilton have returned from a visit at Eastern McKeesport, Pa., where he spent several weeks.

J. C. Noland has returned home.

There was much rejoteing in finishes off the skirt, which also was discharged a few days prefeatures a unique variation of the vious from the naval hospital on the equal suffrage amendment, but account of physical disability. He no demonstrations of any notice that waist with a bunch of artificial flowers tied with ribbon.

The largest shawl is gathered at the waist with a bunch of artificial flowers tied with ribbon.

There was much rejoicing in a quiet way over the ratification of the equal suffrage amendment, but account of physical disability. He no demonstrations of any notice able kind.

Personais.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Phillips and son, Clinton, were guests of friends in Fairmont yesterday. William S. Clancy has returned from Wheeling where he was called by the serious illness of his broth-

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Baker and children, of Bluff street, motored to Fairmont yesterday for a visit with friends.

Robert Vogan and H. C. Ander-son have returned from a business visit in Charleston.

Darius Fromhart and Frank Cross, local young men treated a number of their friends to a truck ride to Fairmont on Friday eve-ning. The party had lunch at Un-Mrs. Nettie Matthews, of Okla-homa City, Okla, who has been vis-iting here for several weeks, will visit her brother at Salem before returning home.

Miss Margaret Furbee has gone to Kingwood for a visit with > Mrs. Harding has returned to her home at Clarksburg after a visit with her sister, Mrs. F. J. Shortle, of Pleasant street.

>
> Miss Goldie Boocks has returned from a visit with friends at Wal-

Clay Toothman, of Fairmont, was the guest of relatives here on Sat-

Mrs. I. N. Longstreth and son, Bernard, have returned from a visit with relatives near Rowles-

"Speeder" Fined.
A well known local man was A well known local man was fined eight dollars in police court on Saturday for attempting to break the automobile speed record on one of the city's principal streets. Speeding in the city lim-

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON.

Scramble Squirrel a Prisoner

Just then they heard an awful sigh, and turning they Scramble himself.

Tingaling, this doorway is just wide enough. Because, if my whisters will go in without touching at either side, my body will go in nicely too."

"Of course!" nodded Mrs. Squirrel, "but he was as skinny as a bone then, after starving all winter. The trouble was that after moving in, we found the pantry chuck full of goodies, hickorynuts, and hazelnuts, and acorns, and whathot, that last year's people had left behind them. And Scramble was as heart he was a people had left behind them. And Scramble was so hungry he ate up nearly the en-tire stock at one meal, never noticing that his sides were getting like watermelons. When he did discover what had happened, it was too late! He couldn't get out of the house! He stuck tight every

Just then they heard an awful sigh, and turning they beheld Scramble himself, or rather his head, gazing wistfully at them from

"Ah ha!" exclaimed Tingaling when Mrs. Squirrel told him that Edwin P. Haught left yests thernoon for Webster Spa-where he will enter the Wes-poliege football training camp college football training camp. Mr. Haught and brother, Cleo, and also their sister, Miss Gladys, will again attend Wesleyan the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Millan and children spent Sunday with the for-mer's sister, Mrs. W. E. Dennis, at Peter Brummage has returned from Kansas where he had spent the past several months in the off Rev. and Mrs. John Beddow and daughter, Miss Gladys, have returned from a two weeks' vacation at Huntington, Charleston and Wes

Miss Ella Bowers has returned from a visit at Mountain Lake Park, Md. Ray Tabler, of Pittsburg, spen:

the week end with his father, Supt. D. C. Tabler, of the city schools. Dorrance Eastman was a visitor to Saint Marys after spending a visit with Iriends here. Clarence E. Melatt has returned from a visit with his mother and sister, at McMechen.

J. R. Burt is a business visito

J. R. Burt is a business visitor at Washington, Pa.
Mr. and Mrs. Ward Satterfield have returned from a visit in Atlantic City and Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tabler have returned from a visit with relatives at Martinsburg.
Mr. and Mrs. Arch Hamilton and family left on Saturday for a vacation in the East.
Mrs. R. C. Dancer has returned yight with her sister, Mrs. W. T. Smith in Clarksbury street. Her nisces, the Misses Marian and Mil-dred Craker, accompanied her home for a visit.

Harper Baker, who has been in the Kansas oil fields for some time,

O. N. Koen is home from his ranch near Lamar, Col., after spending several weeks there. Mrs. Bessie Shipman and daugh-ter, of Akron, Ohlo, are here for a visit with Mrs. C. C. Coffman, or Clayton street. Miss Helen Prichard has accept ed a position in the Youngstown

Lawrence Barrackman and family have gone to Ranger, Texas, after a where they will locate in the off Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Jo Jeannette Morgan attended the an must picnic of the employes of the Hope Gas company at Clarkburg Miss Mary Simmons, teacher in the local schools, returned on Su-urday from a three months' visit in Los Angeles, Cal.

The value of an average year crop of diamonds is $60,000,000.

The world's total production of 187,900,000 carats.

MALE

Mrs. D. J. Haught, of Middle bourne, is the guest of Mrs. A. W. Prichard in Washington street. Lawrence Revealment of Middle GAINS THIRTY POUNDS OF 3 BOTTLES OF NERV-WO

Josephine Smith of Dayton, Ohio, Had Fallen From 180 Pounds to 120, But Nerv-Worth Soon Restored Her to Health and Helped Her to Rapidly Rea Her Former Strength and Weight.

No Danger, No Nausea, No Gripping, o Salts—Nausealess Tablets

Called "Calotabs."

One Calotab on the tongue at bedtime, with a swallow of water, —that's all. No taste, no naries, at the morning feeling fine, your liver active, your system thorough a perite dor breakfast. Eat what you please, no danger, You feel brigha. The cheerful, clear-headed, energetic and strong.

You can now take your calomet without the slightest fear of unpleasantness, for Calotabs retain all of the liver-cleaning and system-purifying qualities of the old-style calomel without the objectionship qualities. Sold only in original, sealed packages, price thirty-fire cents. Your breakfast is not received an authority to refund the price as guarantee of your perfect satisfao tion.—Adv.

"About 4 years ago. I broke down completely," said Miss Smith of Dunbar street, Dayton, Oldo, "and," she goes on, "I was very hearth, of the post of the condition. I had pains in my knees and shoulders and I was also very weak. I do then't had condition. I had pains in my knees and shoulders and I was also very weak. I do talley a street of talley of the law clearly it was afraid of falling whether in the house or in the street. I weighed in the sound town it regular, and after using only 3 please, no danger, You feel brigha. I weighed only 120. I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth and tow it regular, and after using only 3 please, no danger, You feel brigha. I weighed only 120. I purchased without the slightest fear of unpleasantness, for Calotabs retain and strong.

You can now take your calomet without the objective of the condition. I had pains in my knees and shoulders and to falling whether in the anount store, and good healthy five you rich red house or in the street. I weighed in the wind town it regular, and after using only 3 please, no danger, You feel brigha. I weighed only 120. I purchased a bottle of Nerv-Worth and town it regular, and after using only 3 please, no danger, You feel brigha. I weighed only 120. I purchased and strong.

You can now t

With a Distinctive Suit One is Ready for Autumn

S KEPTICISM disappears in the face of facts.

Those who insist that in the clothes world there is nothing new, have but to see the Osgood's Suits now gathered in large and varied assortments. Lines, in themselves examples of originality and smartness, have been made even more charming through the introduction of rich embroidery trimmings and the lavish use of fur Tailored models are of serge and tricotine and so are many elaborate modes, but it remains for duvetyn to furnish the exquisite basis for Suits of afternoon. Navy blue leads with shades of brown and green following close for popular favor. The Autumn Suit provides all-around serviceability and utility not found in any other garment which is one reason why it is always chosen early by women who dress tastefully.

Osgood's Autumn Suit Prices Are $45.00 to $150.00

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS-(THAT LEAVES TOM PERFECTLY SAFE)-BY ALLMAN.

